AA County Dept. of Aging & Disabilities Senior Health Insurance Assistance Program (SHIP)

Medicare is the health insurance for 44 million Americans. Yet most people are intimidated by Medicare and think Medicare is too complex and confusing. Many people with Medicare need an advocate to help them understand their Medicare benefits. Are you interested in learning about Medicare? Do you want to help other people with their Medicare-related issues? The SHIP program trains volunteers on Medicare; these volunteers then assist others in the community with Medicare-related issues. SHIP counselors help people select Part D drug plans, and understand their options for Medigap or Medicare Advantage Plans. Because the information provided by SHIP counselors must remain unbiased, insurance agents will not be considered for SHIP volunteer positions. Contact SHIP at the AA County Dept. of Aging and Disabilities at 410-222-4464 ex 3080 or Amy Rubino at AGAMRU00@aacounty.org for more information and to volunteer.

Anne Arundel County Public Schools AVID Tutoring Program (County-wide)

The Advancement Via Individual Determination (AVID) Tutoring Program supports students in grades 6 through 12 who are in the academic middle. AVID tutors, age 18 and older, will be trained to work with small groups of students during the AVID elective class. These students have gone through an application process and have been selected to participate in the AVID Program at their respective school. Tutors will help students be successful by assisting them with problem-solving techniques, working collaboratively with other students, and serving as role models. Tutors would commit to at least one semester of tutoring at one of the AVID sites for a minimum of one hour per week, during the regular school day. For an application and more information about training locations and dates contact: Jennifer Ballard at 410 222-5458 or jballard1@aacps.org. Web site: <http://www.aacps.org/avid/>.

- Volunteers are also needed to work with high school AVID students who are partnering with Junior Achievement. JA Worldwide is a partnership between the business community, educators and volunteers — all working together to inspire young people to dream big and reach their potential. JA’s hands-on, experiential programs teach the key concepts of work readiness, entrepreneurship and financial literacy to young people all over the world. Junior Achievement provides the training, curriculum, and a classroom ready to meet you. Anyone interested in volunteering will need to commit to a 2 ½ hour training session where volunteers will become familiar with the program and their role. Volunteers will also need to schedule 7 or 8 dates with the AVID teacher for approximately 45-60 minutes each session in order to conduct the lessons. For more information in becoming a volunteer with AVID and Junior Achievement, please contact Carol Ann McCurdy, Coordinator of Academic Support at 410-222-5829 or email cmccurdy@aacps.org.

Anne Arundel Mentoring Roundtable

The Anne Arundel Mentoring Roundtable is a forum which meets on a quarterly basis to share ideas, best practices and create momentum for mentoring programs that foster the positive development of the County’s young people through wise, trustworthy, and caring adults. It is a program of the Volunteer Center For Anne Arundel County that has been in existence for six years. Through their participation, a number of school-based, faith-based, business-based, and community-based mentoring programs support the mission and goals of the roundtable. If you are interested in mentoring, please contact the Volunteer Center for more information at (410) 897-9207 or fay@volunteerannearundel.org. Web: www.volunteerannearundel.org.

- 5:00 – 7:30 pm, Wed., July 28, 2010, Quarterly Meeting: The meeting is being held at the “Pip” Moyer Recreation Center at Truxton Park, Annapolis.
